WOOD AND CLAY FLUTIST JOSEPH L YOUNG COMPLETELY ENJOYABLE ON ETHEREUM ALBUM

Come and enjoy the incredible flute-playing of Joseph L Young from his album ETHEREUM. Find some site online where they let you sample the music and give a few of these tunes a listen. You will not regret it.

Young is an exceptional musician working in the new age and world-fusion arenas. He writes beautiful melodies and plays some of the warmest and most creative flute sounds around. He supplements his world flutes with synth, hammered dulcimer, sax, ethnic percussion, harp and tin whistle. Some of the tunes are ethereal while others are more melodic and structured. Much of it is soft and slow, perfect for slowing down and relaxing after a fast-paced day. Simply beautiful music all the way around.
